Introduction: Which nation or society for its bright perspective in the present and for tomorrow to create a socially favorable environment and a ground for progress in a certain way, the next generations, own realizing and developing and progressing while grieving for the fate of their children to place great emphasis on a specific area. We all know the high finish and the goal to be able to choose an effective and correct way in moving and to use it at a higher level ensures that the result is achieved in a perfect and complete way. In these processes any society and state before itself chooses a certain path and strategy. Specifically, it is to say that a number of reforms and practical work are being carried out in our country can. The driving force of social and economic development in our country at the moment as a strength, young people are given special attention and opportunities. At the same time in addition to opportunities, facilities, high confidence is expressed in young people. Here President of our country Sh. Proof of our word of Mirziyoyev's thoughts towards young people it is considered: "we are to establish before ourselves the foundation of the third renaissance in our country as long as we have set a great goal, New Khwarazmians, Berunians, Ibn Sina are for this, We need to create environments and conditions that will educate the Ulugbek, Navoi and Babur. In this, first of all, the development of education and upbringing, the determination of a healthy lifestyle, science and the fact that the advancement of innovation will serve as the main pillars of our national idea needed.

So that our young people can make great strides in front of them on the path of this goal and achieve them creating a wide range of opportunities and providing comprehensive support - the top priority for all of us it is necessary to have a task. Only then will our children realize the centuries-old aspirations of our people will become a great and powerful force that will release ". Of such high confidence directly a worthy response to the opportunities being created is the main one that is required of young people the task.

Socio-economic, spiritual and religious life in the life of our country today which focuses on reforms, laws, resolutions, decrees and ordinances being issued we can safely say to young people that oida gave rise to a new era in reforms.what reforms and opportunities, society and the social life of the state are taking place the bottom floor of the processes will also contain a certain base, base. Youth if we also focus directly on the abyss of reforms, then in its own way there are legal grounds. The first of these, as well as one of the main ones, is on September 14, 2016 law of the Republic of Uzbekistan on "state youth policy " adopted is. This legislation contains 4 chapters and 33 articles. Of the Legislature. article one States: "the purpose of this act is in the field of public policy on youth consists of regulating relationships " recorded as. Then young people in our country issues, opportunities and amenities given to them, responsible responsible organizations and information and instructions on public bodies, in general, on many issues granted and strengthened by its legal basis. At the same time this law the document reveals the essence of the content of state policy on youth with special comments.

December 25, 2020 in our country has left an indelible mark on the life of the youth of our country and the day when great social change, enthusiasm and enthusiasm were added, that is, the Republic It was the day the" youth forum " took place.. Young people at the last meeting in the form of open communication with their practical suggestions and initiatives, feedback, they have shown their activism.The problems that afflict young people in every sector, in every sector, are clear to the head of State,boldly stated. To women of low-income families in need of social protection state grants have been increased to access higher education. Such charitable initiatives further the feeling of love and inviolability to the motherland in the underprivileged layer of society paved the way for his rise. Highest score in entrance exams as of academic year 2021-2022 Presidential Scholarships were introduced for students who collected. Who associated himself with science,for young people who set themselves the goal of high heights, such grands are their gives special passion and energy as an incentive in practical work activities.Studying the problems of young people, working with them systematically, working with young people impressively in the purpose of forming mechanisms, the platform "youth appeal" is being created. This through the platform, young people make their invitation appeals to the relevant organization and institutions can mature. Financing youth projects, realization of dreams and goals, investment and in order to create the necessary conditions for them, applying them comprehensively US $ 100 million in dollar was provided by the Department of foreign trade. Youth ensuring employment, creating the necessary conditions for the layer of young people in need of unorganized work in order to build' youth small industrial " zones, and now our country in many districts, the final stage of the project is underway. Job creation the result is a great positive in preventing crime among young people and reducing their number gives results. Through the implementation of the project" Youth small industrial zones", they have their own district, the opportunity to work in his neighborhood will be created. The current technical progress is intense information technology of young people in a developing era, with software products in order to expand the ability to work, the project "one million programmers" will cost 300 thousand in Doras free youth training is planned. Through this, in the age of technology, mature in every way, the formation of a youth layer that effectively uses information technology is the main goal is. Finding a field where computer technology has not penetrated today is difficult. Qualified programmer in the field of software by training young people many problems and disadvantages are eliminated.

Conclusion

In conclusion, it can be said that now we have a huge number of young people as well as social opportunities are being created covering all aspects of life and its legal bases are being strengthened. These processes, and in today's era, only these from young people the task of making good and effective use of opportunities is required. During this period all young people act with the manifestation of a position of inviolability and active citizenship in themselves making is a reasonable way. After all, the head of our state, in vain, said with high confidence to young people:"Strength from your enthusiasm when I meet our young people every time I'll, my heart rises like a mountain. Each of you exultantly to our native land and people I know perfectly well that you live burning with the dream of serving. Most of you Uzbekistan great wealth, appreciate as an invaluable treasure " did not argue.
